

Customer Forum 35: Summary of Next Steps

Comments should be submitted to techforum@bpa.gov or through your Transmission Account Executive

The following summary is in chronological order and developed to provide a quick summary of action items and next steps of Transmission Services' programmatic customer involvement:

- NT Redispatch Update:
 - June 20 customer feedback is welcome on the proposed alternatives
- Credit Policy Reform:
 - June 21 is the start of a 30-day comment period on proposal on slides 7 and 8 of the presentation. Feedback on additional considerations (Slide 9 of presentation) is encouraged.
- Network Open Season (NOS) Reform
 - June 28 – Workshop on non-NOS studies and NOS Financial Requirements
 - Customer feedback welcome on proposed NOS model.
- Generator Imbalance
 - June 28 – Customer meeting to discuss alternatives for the provision of generation imbalance
- Generation Interconnection (GI) Queue Reform
 - July 20, 2012 – Comments requested on proposed modifications presented on Slide 7 of presentation
- NT Planning Update:
 - July 2012 – Customer meeting planned
- Wind Integration Team (WIT):
 - July 2012 – Revisions to CSGI and DTC business practices out for customer comment
- FERC Order 1000:
 - July 2012 – Customer workshops to work on any tariff revisions
 - October 11, 2012 - compliance filing to meet regional planning requirements expected.
- Network Flowgates:
 - July-August 2012 – Customer meeting
 - Planned update at Customer Forum 36 (Fall 2012)
- South East Idaho Load Service:
 - August 2012 - Comprehensive update and comment period planned
- Precedent Transmission Service Agreement (PTSA) Reform:
 - August 14 - Proposed settlements expected to be posted for public comment for 30-day comment period
- Enhanced BPA Balancing Authority (EBBA):
 - Fall 2012 - Opportunities to participate in Enhanced Supplemental Service workshops
- Available Transfer Capability (ATC) Project Update:
 - Fall 2012 – Planning comprehensive customer workshop
- NOS Projects:
 - Project updates as developed with regular updates quarterly

